Access: Donner Pass Trail can be accessed from several locations. A favorite beginning is located on County Road 44H, Buckhorn Road, just west of the Buckhorn Ranger Station. Another northern access is located on a branch of Greer Road (forest road 154) off of Ballard Road (forest road 129), and the third access is located farther south where Ballard Road intersects the trail. Donner Pass also can be accessed from the south via the Dunraven Trailhead by hiking up Bulwark Ridge Trail (#928.1) and down Indian Trail (#927) to where it meets the Miller Fork Trail (#997). Hikers may chose to go right or left onto the Miller Fork Trail, as either direction will junction with the Donner Pass Trail.

Trail Information: Donner Pass Trail and Lookout Mountain Trail (#934) intersect near their midpoints. The southern portion of the Donner Pass Trail between County Road 44H and Donner Pass is open to motorcycles and dirt bikes. Motorcycles and dirt bikes using this trail must have a license plate or be registered as an OHV with Colorado State Parks.
